

Coldwell Banker Commercial NRT is very proud to announce the addition of Carole Tam, CCIM to our ranks. Carole has been a licensed broker in California since 1994 and recently received her Texas broker's license. She will be working out of the Plano office. As a commercial real estate professional she has experience in virtually all facets of the business including industrial, office, retail and multifamily investment properties as well as commercial and residential land development.

Carole has been a Certified Commercial Investment Member since 2008, the highest designation one can achieve in commercial real estate. This special membership has certainly strengthened her ability to better serve her national and international clientele, providing them with expertise that few have. She is not only well versed in 1031 Exchanges but teaches courses in this subject matter as well. Fluent in Mandarin, Chinese and English, Carole is passionate about her real estate career and is excited about the new challenge of expanding her business here in the DFW Metroplex.

Please join me in welcoming Carole to Coldwell Banker Commercial NRT.
